

Ellen Papa—Studio Performance Director—

Ellen, Director of Discovery's Studio Performance & founder of Music That's Mine Inc., has been a professional actress, singer and teacher for over 20 years! Ellen is a working member of the Screen Actors Guild for 18 years and has been seen in major motion pictures, national commercials and heard coast to coast as a voice-over talent in national radio spots. Ellen now dedicates her time teaching youngsters how to be truly awesome performers on stage and in life through her classes, summer camp, and her private lessons where she is considered one of the most successful vocal coaches in Virginia!